Lunar New Year Party

Saturday, February 9, 2013

A Lunar New Year Celebration was held on February 9th, 2013 by American Scholar to commemorate the new year for all our Asia Pacific international students. Victoria Court of the Chapel Hill Campus hosted approximately 100 students, staff members and special guests for the celebration.

Hanging red and gold paper lanterns cast a soft glow over the brightly colored tables that filled the Court. All attendants participated in cooking traditional Japanese Shabu-shabu and Korean Bulgogi at the tables. Amidst the steam and sizzle of the meal, the sounds of young voices sharing stories and music from home with American guests filled the air. The view of these interactions captured a cultural exchange that will continue to foster the importance of sharing tradition across generations as well as continents.

AVALANCHE EXPRESS SNOW TUBING

MEADVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16TH, 2013

On Saturday, February 15th, 2013, American Scholar headed for the slopes! Students and chaperones from American Scholar headed to Meadville, Pennsylvania to participate in a winter snow tubing event at Avalanche Express. The weather was sunny, but very cold and wintry as the students sped down the six snowy, 900 foot long runs on specially designed tubes for winter fun. A cable tow pulled the tubes and riders back up the hill for another exciting run! Hot chocolate and snacks were enjoyed as the students “thawed out” at the fireplace in the clubhouse. A stop at Montana’s Rib & Chop House in Meadville for steak dinners on the way home completed a terrific afternoon of fun and fellowship!
