Lunar New Year Party

Saturday, February 9, 2013

A Lunar New Year Celebration was held on February 9th, 2013 by American Scholar to commemorate the new year for all our Asia Pacific international students. Victoria Court of the Chapel Hill Campus hosted approximately 100 students, staff members and special guests for the celebration.

Hanging red and gold paper lanterns cast a soft glow over the brightly colored tables that filled the Court. All attendants participated in cooking traditional Japanese Shabu-shabu and Korean Bulgogi at the tables. Amidst the steam and sizzle of the meal, the sounds of young voices sharing stories and music from home with American guests filled the air. The view of these interactions captured a cultural exchange that will continue to foster the importance of sharing tradition across generations as well as continents.

AVALANCHE EXPRESS SNOW TUBING

MEADVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16TH, 2013

On Saturday, February 15th, 2013, American Scholar headed for the slopes! Students and chaperones from American Scholar headed to Meadville, Pennsylvania to participate in a winter snow tubing event at Avalanche Express. The weather was sunny, but very cold and wintry as the students sped down the six snowy, 900 foot long runs on specially designed tubes for winter fun. A cable tow pulled the tubes and riders back up the hill for another exciting run! Hot chocolate and snacks were enjoyed as the students “thawed out” at the fireplace in the clubhouse. A stop at Montana’s Rib & Chop House in Meadville for steak dinners on the way home completed a terrific afternoon of fun and fellowship!

Friday Formal Dinner

Friday, April 5th, 2013

The announcement is presented in a dark grey rectangular box with a subtle drop shadow, set against a larger background of the same color. On the left side of the box, there is a faint, light-colored botanical illustration of a plant with thin stems, leaves, and small circular buds. The text is centered and uses a clean, sans-serif font. The main title is in a larger, bold font, while the location, date, and time are in a smaller font. The menu and beverage information is presented in an italicized font.

American Scholar Group 2013 Commencement Luncheon

Sixty-five students and staff members gathered at The Gallery Grille at The Greens of Greenville to celebrate the graduation of our eight Senior students of American Scholar — the Class of 2013. Senior graduates included: Adeline Yu, Jason Wang, Venty Hu, Yanhao Hu, Susan Li, Chloe Fu, June Jung and Henry Zhu. Pastor Jim Chapin, ASG Chaplain, offered the Blessing, and provided an inspirational talk for the attendees on Leadership. The gathering enjoyed a sumptuous Brunch of Granola Encrusted French Toast, Fried Potatoes, Scrambled Egg Casserole, Ham, Bacon, Green Bean Medley, Veggie Salad w. Dressing, Fresh Fruit Salad, Muffins and Assorted Desserts and Beverages.

Vincent Mao, ASG Head Prefect, introduced and acknowledged the Graduating Senior class, telling of their future college plans. The graduating Seniors were honored with diploma certificates and scrolls of academic merit. The 2013 ASG Valedictorian was presented to Adeline Yu, while Jason Wang received the 2013 ASG Salutatorian Award, both awards being presented by Lisa Ng, Executive Director-Corporate. Bob Stanger, Dean of Students, presented award to the top Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman scholars, including the following: Top Junior Student — Zoe Lao, Top Sophomore Student — Paul Jin, Top Freshman Student — CiCi Du. The Most Improved ASG Student was presented to Kai Chen. Best School Attendance Awards were presented to: Senior — Jason Wang, Junior — Mark Lu, Sophomore — Gina Ding, and Freshman — Bryan Gwang. Sheryl Lanning, Director, Student Experience presented the 2013 Spirit of American Scholar Award to Tom Sun. Certificates of Merit were presented to the students who had achieved Summa cum Laude, Magna cum Laude, and cum Laude status with their school grades.

Adeline Yu presented a very entertaining and heartfelt video of the Graduating Seniors. Sheryl Lanning led the students in the reading of the ASG Honor Oath. Leslie Hite, Group Vice President, offered closing remarks and provided a sincere send off for the all of the ASG students.
